Why Exhibit?

As an exhibitor at the only event focused on energy recovery from biomass and waste you benefit from:

MORE NETWORKING – everything at EBW is in one place: exhibits, sessions, lunches, coffee breaks and networking receptions. You spend more time with prospective buyers, industry experts and opinion-leaders from academia, politics and the media.

MORE LEADS – EBW guarantees top-quality attendance: delegate promotion is tailored to reach out to decision-makers from local, state and federal authorities; to investors from industry and agriculture; and to project managers responsible for multi-million dollar ventures.

MORE VISIBILITY – exhibitor packages include many free extras: a speaking opportunity at the EBW conference; press releases highlighting your organization's presence to our 5,000+ contacts database; coverage of the event in all leading trade publications; and many more...
